

Nelson Branch

Membership Application Form

The Nelson Branch of the New Zealand Institute of International Affairs would like to invite you to become a member. This will enable you to participate in the numerous meetings that are organised on a wide range of topics related to international affairs, addressed by distinguished visiting and local speakers.

Membership also entitles you to participate in major seminars organised by the NZIIA National Office, Wellington, and other branches, if you are visiting that area (details can be found on www.nziiia.org.nz). The annual subscription covers the cost of six editions a year of the Institute's magazine, the New Zealand International Review, which will be sent to you as below.

Your membership subscription can be paid either by:

- cheque – bank your cheque (payable to NZIIA Nelson Branch) at any Nelson Building Society branch 03-1354-0456472-30 (please state your name)
- Or by direct credit – transfer fees into the NZIIA account number with your surname as the reference
- Either way please let the Secretary, Gabrielle Hervey, know via email gayhervey@gmail.com

The President is Bill Unwin email: judwin@xtra.co.nz
